

Wild Roses

Kimmie Rhodes

(¾ time)

Instrumental:

[A] don't really mind if you pick them [D]

[D] And they don't really [A] care

If you [E7] leave them a-[A]-lone.

I've [A] seen them down in the valley,

Wild [D] roses that [A] grow by the side of the [E7] road,

And they [A] don't really mind if you pick them [D]

[D] And they don't really [A] care

If you [E7] leave them a-[A]-lone.

Wild [D] roses... Wild roses [A] open their hearts

Gently by the [E7] by.

[D] Wild roses grow unat-[A]-tended

And nobody ever knows [E7] why.

When the [A] sun goes down in the valley

There's music in the night that it [D] brings,

[D] And the [A] roses quietly listen [D]

[D] To the [A] song that the [E7] whippoorwill [A] sings.

Instrumental:

[D] And the [A] roses quietly listen [D]

[D] To the [A] song that the [E7] whippoorwill [A] sings.

Wild [D] roses ... wild roses [A] open their hearts

Gently by the [E7] by.

[D] Wild roses grow unat-[A]-tended

And nobody ever knows [E7] why.

You [A] won't hear the sound of them leaving

As they softly fade into the [D] snow,

And they [A] don't really care if you pick them.

Wild [D] roses just [A] grow by the [E7] side of the [D] road.

Wild roses just [A] grow by the [E7] side of the [A] road.
